TRUMPET CALL FROM HOLSTEIN.

AN open letter to the Managers and Employers of Laborers, residing in the 2nd Election District, (West Hawaii), Island of Hawaii:

I want each of you to commence educating your Hawaiian laborers as to the disastrous results which will be harvested by Hawaiians in case Wilcox's Leper Bill is passed in Congress. How it will affect your sugar and how it will affect them as laborers. Teach them now. You must do it. Don't wait for one or two to do this work. If you are anxious to see Wilcox defeated, get out and work among your laborers. They will listen to you if you will advise them as to what is proper. Prince Cupid is doing noble work among his people and you must do your share. Wilcox's majority over Parker last election was only 79 votes. We can defeat Wilcox if we only try, and as your executive, I hope you will heed my advice.

H. L. HOLSTEIN (Linekono) Republican Executive Committee-man,

West Hawaii, 2nd Election District.

THE VOLCANO.

The volcano for more than a week has been a spectacle worth traveling miles to see. The fact that the crater of Kilauea is harmless when in action, will not be believed by the general public on the Mainland, so soon after the great disaster at Martinique. To the undiscriminating a volcano is a volcano, and all are to be avoided.

With Kilauea, however, almost a century of observation has proved it to be a harmless attraction. The lava boils up from the bottom of a deep pit in the center of a vast depression. The flow of lava must be of long duration and unprecedented volume before it can break from these natural prison basins and pass down the slopes to the sea. The action of Kilauea has never been explosive.

The reports from the volcano each day indicate that the lava is rising constantly and the scene down in the great crater is growing more interesting.

We cannot understand the logic of the Herald's reasoning when it singles out J. C. Ridgway of Hilo as responsible for the Rules under which he has been selected for Territorial Central Committeeman. With the exception of Charles Williams, none of the members, viz. McStocker, Walker, Williams and Ridgway, selected from this District for Committeemen were delegates to any convention. The Rules provide for the selection of the various Central Committeemen by the respective delegations to the territorial convention, and this was the practice which prevailed two years ago. The parties responsible for Mr. Ridgway's reappointment on the Central Committee are the members of the delegation from this representative district. The Herald's charge is apparently an attempt to revive the Smith embroglio over Mr. Ridgway's original appointment, last spring. The Herald should endeavor to get nearer the facts and past history.

The Democratic party is renowned for its stubborn bullheadedness. It has done the wrong thing at the right time ever since Jefferson died. In Hawaii, it is living up to its Mainland record. The Democrats could aid in the upbuilding of Hawaii by endorsing Prince Cupid. But of course they will go it for Wilcox.

R. T. GUARD and Philip Peck kept Hilo to the front at the Territorial Convention.

PRINCE CUPID was the choice of the Convention. He will also be the choice of the people.

A VALUABLE article continuing the description of a Hamakua poultry ranch is published in this issue.

THE TRIBUNE gives its readers today the most concise yet complete story of the Republican Convention published in the Islands.

PRINCE CUPID started in the right direction when he left the Wilcox crowd. If the Hawaiians will follow him, they will do that which is best for their country, the material prosperity of the Islands and the happiness of their people.

THE country papers in the Islands are making sport of Hilo because, as they say, there is no hotel here. It is true we have no Palace hotel, but we have abundant first class accommodation for transient visitors. They are not compelled to sleep on the beach or walk the streets all night. Finer suites of rooms do not exist in the Islands than are to be had at the Peacock building. Better meals are not served anywhere than at Demosthenes' Cafe.

POLITICS AT KAILUA.

Prince Cupid and Party Held a Great Meeting.

Monday, August 25 was a gala day at Kailua. Being steamer day the usual crowd of business men and pleasure seekers had congregated around the wharf and along the beach, but it was quite evident that some extra attraction had drawn many men to town who are seldom seen there.

Throughout the Kona the news had spread that Prince Kalanianolele had come to delight the hearts of the people of Kona with his well-timed oratory, and the excitement grew still greater when it was known that he would be accompanied by three of the best speakers of the land.

A mass meeting in the big church was arranged for noon when the steamer would have left and business men be at leisure, but as Kailua, one of the Prince's three companions had to leave on the steamer he ascended the tribune in front of Kaelenakule's store and spoke for half an hour to an enthusiastic crowd.

In his speech he adjured his hearers to earnestly listen to the words of the prince of whose disinterestedness and love for the people he assured them.

He laid great stress on the fact that the deplorable failure of the last legislature was due to its being composed of so few men of principles and so many without, that a man without principle could not be a gentleman and was unfit to represent the people.

The steamer having departed the great bell tolled and the masses wended their way to the church where they were received and shown to their seats by ushers in full dress.

J. K. Nahale, the Deputy Sheriff for North Kona, who, by the way, seems to have quitted the Republican party, was elected to the chair and introduced the first speaker, Prince Kalanianolele.

After stating in a few well chosen words why he appeared here before the people he turned in his gentlemanly way to the few foreigners present and gave them in English a concise synopsis of his intended speech.

The speaker was listened to by all his hearers with intense interest and was frequently applauded. His earnest and manly manner left no room for doubt that his words came straight from a big heart, and they surely found their way to responsive hearts, words that cannot fail bearing fruit in due season.

He told his hearers that he came not as a candidate soliciting their votes, or as an office seeker, nor to tell them for whom to vote, but that he came to them as an educator in this new era of politics which he had studied closely for that purpose.

He explained the county system with its duties and privileges, its educational value in preparing the Territory for statehood, machine politics and party systems on the mainland by which the minority could control the majority, and the proper use of the remaining public lands. The whole oration was delivered with intense feeling, but without passion and exaggeration of any kind.

The next speaker was Mahaula who enlarged upon the Prince's speech and whose pleasant manner and graceful gestures captivated even those whose education in Hawaiian had been neglected.

The third and last speaker was Makekani, a home rule member of the last legislature. He began in rather a dry way giving a short history of the political changes in recent years since the downfall of the monarchy. Little by little he warmed up to his subject, and when he came to speak of the achievement of the last legislature, when he described the doings of himself and colleagues in language bristling with witty ridicule and sarcasm, there was such shouting, such laughing, such stamping, such clapping as the walls of that old church never echoed before. With three thundering hurrahs the meeting was dissolved.

HAWAII FELIX.

Ready for Excursions.

When seen yesterday regarding the statement in the Herald to the effect that the Volcano Stables is responsible for no excursions to the Volcano officer than once a week, Mr. Wright said: "The Stables are ready to take care of excursions every day if the people want them. If there are no excursions it will not be our fault."

The Way to Win.

The call of Chairman H. L. Holstein published in this issue should not be read, laid aside and forgotten. It should be remembered and heeded. Work is all that is required to send Prince Cupid to Washington with a big majority. His nomination was received with approval by all classes in Hilo and when the importance of his election is properly presented to the voters all over the island his following will be enormous.

Japanese Died Naturally.

Horne, a Kaumana Japanese who died rather suddenly last week was a subject of a Coroner's inquest last Saturday. The jury, which was composed of four Japanese and two whites returned a verdict of death from natural causes. The deceased had been arrested a week ago last Sunday for fast riding and some of his friends circulated the report that his death was caused by the harsh treatment given him by the police, naming Captain Lake and Deputy Sheriff Overend in particular. The arrest was made by Officer Warren the other two officers having nothing to do with it. The Coroner's verdict however was an exoneration of the department from all rumors.
